

Q Station and Skye LifeStyle Sydney Harbour Yoga Retreat

Q Station Retreat

In its breathtaking position at North Head in the natural setting of Sydney Harbour National Park, the former Quarantine Station has been beautifully restored as a unique and culturally significant hotel and conference facility.

Restored guest rooms with verandas and sweeping views have been enhanced with the modern conveniences of the 21st century, and all just 30 minutes by car or ferry from Sydney's CBD.

Surrounded by harbour and bush, hidden coves and famous beaches, Q Station Retreat offers an impressive and often spirited selection of cultural and history tours and the long running lantern-lit ghost tour with many attractions at nearby Manly.

Yoga Retreat Includes:

- Six yoga and meditation classes throughout the weekend
- Buffet breakfast on both mornings at Views Restaurant
- Two course dinner on both nights at the Boilerhouse Restaurant
- Accommodation in single or twin share rooms
- Valet parking
- Entry to the Quarantine museum in the Visitor Centre
- Exclusive access to Q Station's private beach
- Space for relaxation and rejuvenation

Extras (some have additional costs and need at least 48 hours' notice for availability):

- Massages
- Naturopath session on the Saturday
- Quarantine Station history tours or Wharf Wander
- Bike tours or bike hire
- Kayak hire
- Surf lessons in Manly
- Drive to Manly and enjoy a little shopping in the Corso or the cafes
- Walk to North Head
